Who Will Get The Next $10?

Climax Contest Causing Excitement.

Next Count Mar. 15 and Last Before the Final Count Middle of April.

The Climax voting contest goes merrily on and interest in the outcome is growing more intense every day, especially since the contestants know what a magnificent prize one of them is to get. There will be two more counts—the next one next Saturday, March 15th, and that will be for $10 in gold, the money to go to the contestant who makes the greatest gain in votes from the time of the last count—Feb. 15—to March 15th.

Previous votes will not count for the gold, but simply toward the piano, and that being the case, every contestant has an equal show, as the one who makes the greatest gain will be the one who will be awarded the gold.

It will be remembered that the first prize went to Miss Laura Taylor, the second to Miss Georgia Walton, with Miss Etta Turner winning second money; and now the question is, who will win the $10 Saturday?

We desire to call the attention of the contestants to this fact: The bonus votes, other than for the merchants' coupons, will be reduced after the next count. This being the case the contestants should get in every vote possible between this time and March 15, as the bonus vote will not be so large hereafter.

What you want to know is, how you can win the gold and the piano, too. Get new subscribers; get old subscribers to pay up and renew; trade with the merchants who are offering prizes; follow this rule and get in every vote you can between now and next Saturday afternoon, March 15th.

Try hard and win this last special prize we offer, and you will be in a good position to make the high vote on the piano count about April 15th, which will be the last count, the result of which will determine who gets the piano.

SPECIAL OFFER.

The Climax makes the following bonus offers to the various candidates in the contest, same to hold good until Saturday, March 15, at 4 o'clock:

For every seven yearly new subscriptions we will give 10,000 extra votes, making a total of 14,000 votes.

For every seven renewal subscriptions 8,000 extra, a total of 11,500 votes.

For every seven back subscriptions, 6,000 extra, a total of 8,800 votes.

For every 40 merchants' coupons brought to this office and counted by the publisher or his assistants, a bonus of 1,000 extra votes will be given, a total of 2,000 in all.

One five-year paid-up subscription and two yearly paid-up subscriptions we will credit the candidate with the 10,000 bonus vote, or any combination of paid-up new or renewal subscriptions, for more than one year, totaling seven subscriptions, will entitle the candidate to the 10,000 bonus vote.

All of the contestants should get busy and make the most of the time intervening between this date and that of the next count and roll up a large vote. From present indications there is a big surprise in store for some one.

Merchants' coupons, counting 25 votes can be procured with every cash purchase amounting to $1 at

Why Women Suffer.

Many Richmond women are learning the cause. Women often suffer not knowing the cause. Backache, headache, dizziness, nervousness, irregular urinary passages, weakness, languor—

Each a torture of itself. Together hint at weakened kidneys. Strike at the root—get to the cause. No other remedy more highly endorsed than Doan's Kidney Pills. Recommended by thousands—Endorsed at home.

Here's convincing testimony from a Richmond citizen: Mrs. Edwards, 308 Edna st. St. Richmond, Ky., says: "I think that Doan's Kidney Pills are a good medicine and one that should be used in every home. I had weak kidneys and backaches and suffered intensely. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, obtained at Middleton's, Drug Store and they made me feel fine."

Their Awful Punishment.

It is said that men who never drink smoke nor stay out late at night, live to a ripe old age. Perhaps that's their punishment.—Maysville Public Ledger.

Better Late Than Never.

On March 3, Mr. Wickersham filed a civil suit at Trenton, N. J., for the dissolution of the thread trust—just as a ripe old age. Perhaps that's their punishment.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Seeks Relief In Bankruptcy.

Martin Gentry, who has been conducting a soft drink business here, filed a petition in bankruptcy with Commissioner W. C. Bennett Friday, liabilities about $2,400. His creditors are principally Cincinnati and Lexington brewers.

Like Our Job Work.

The fact that this office has done job printing for Louisville, Eminence, Irvine and Beattyville parties during the past week, makes us come to the conclusion that our work pleases them. Hate to say it, but it is true that the Climax has not only the best-equipped job printing plant in this section of Kentucky, but has a man at the head of it in Basil Duke Gordon who would make Harlow turn green with envy were he alive today. Another thing—our prices please quite as well as our work. So "drop in" and let us please you.

A Sensible Barber.

A Harrodsburg barber has announced through the papers that he will not tolerate loafers about his place, and asks them to stay out. Verily the loafer is having a hard time to find a place to while away the hours. Nothing is more disagreeable to people at work than to have a lot of loafers hanging around shooting off their gab and occupying space that could be put to better use. The Harrodsburg barber is right.—Danville Messenger.

Press Association Meets On June 9th.

The Executive Committee of the Kentucky Press Association, in session at the Seelbach Hotel, Louisville, Saturday, announced that the next annual meeting of the association would be held at Olympia Springs, beginning June 9, next. A program committee was named, composed of Desha Breckinridge, of the Lexington Herald; Louis Landrum, of the Danville Messenger, and James Allen, of the Cincinnati Democrat.

Most Here.

Joe's dreamin' of the happy time I'm a-join' to feel.
When I get my hook an' line, My minnows an' my reel.
Thinkin' of the music, too,
Where the ruffles flow,
And the sunshine, breakin' through,
Warns a fellow so.

Won't forget what keeps the snakes
From doin' any harm; An, besides, it kinder makes Fishin' have its charm.

Handsome Year Book.

Dr. D. H. Scanlon, of the First Presbyterian church, is having this office get out for his congregation a very handsome year book. Besides important data concerning the church, it will contain the names of the present members and those of the past several decades. Neither time nor money will be spared on the book, and it probably will be the most complete as well as handsomest book of the kind that has been issued in this part of the State in many years.

Mr. Miller The Kind Needed.

A number of prominent democrats of Madison county have issued a card calling upon A. D. Miller, editor with E. C. Walton of the Richmond Climax to become a candidate for Representative of Madison county. Mr. Miller is a first class gentleman and would make a Representative of whom the people would be proud. He is a level-headed business man, and that is the kind that are needed at Frankfort.—Danville Advocate.

B. P. O. Elks, No. 581, Elect Officers.

Last Friday night, March 7th, the B. P. O. Elks, No. 581, elected officers for the ensuing year, to-wit: John Noland, Exalted Ruler; Green Clay, Esteemed Leading Knight; P. L. Willing, Esteemed Loyal Knight; T. B. Collins, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; T. C. O'Neil, Secretary; L. P. Evans, Treasurer; J. D. White, Tyler; Joe Collins, Trustee for three years; Jas. W. Wagers, Representative to Grand Lodge; W. S. Oldham, Alternate to Grand Lodge. The newly elected Exalted Ruler did not announce his appointive officer, but stated he would do so later.

Organ for Sale.

Organ and square piano in fine condition. Price so small am ashamed to mention it. Must be sold by Saturday; make an offer, anything takes either one. Also piano boxes very cheap. Montenegro-Riehm Music Co. 121 First Street.

Sothorn and Marlowe at Lexington.

The engagement of E. H. Sothorn and Julia Marlowe at the Lexington Opera House for three nights beginning Monday, March 24th, promises to attract very many theatre goers of this city. As is well known to those who keep up on theatrical matters, Mr. Sothorn and Miss Marlowe are considered the most important dramatic organization of the English speaking stage. Their business every where from coast to coast surpasses that of any other theatrical company, and this, despite the fact that they are willing to play at the usual prices charged by the first-class attractions; that is, 50c to $2. The repertoire for Lexington is a most exciting one. On Monday night, March 24th, they will appear in "Roméo and Juliet" on Tuesday night, 25th, "As You Like It," and on Wednesday night, 26th, "Hamlet." The manager of the Lexington Opera House, Mr. Charles Scott, has arranged to fill all mail orders accompanied by remittance in the sequence of their receipt. Those desiring seats can be assured of good positions by sending check or money order and setting forth their wishes to Mr. Charles Scott, Manager, Opera House, Lexington, Ky.

Premier Bryan.

The President has selected a very strong body of men as advisors. His Cabinet is made up of the party's greatest men and chosen for each man's fitness for the portfolio he is to handle. Geographically considered it is also well selected, every part of the country being represented. Taken together the Cabinet will compare more than favorably with any other for many years, and nothing but good is prophesied for it. In choosing a man for the first position in his Cabinet, Mr. Wilson would have shown ingratitude unworthy of him if he had not tendered the place of Secretary of State to Hon. William Jennings Bryan, without whose efforts at the critical time he would probably not have been nominated for the presidency. Speaker Clark had double as many votes as Mr. Wilson, till the Nebraska, with a powerful effort directed at the Speaker's New York support, turned the tide and won the prize for the New Jerseyan. Besides, Mr. Bryan is well equipped for the place and being the most popular democrat in the country, appointment pleases millions of those who have stood by him since his spectacular entry into National politics sixteen or eighteen years ago and was nominated for the presidency.

There may be those who think Mr. Bryan is a dangerous man for public position. He might have been at one time, but with age has come wisdom and conservatism and no fears need be tell on that score. We do not believe, however, that Mr. Bryan will remain long in the Cabinet. He can't afford it. He can make five times as much a year as his salary of $12,000, with his tongue and pen, and like the rest of us, Mr. Bryan is not adverse to filthy lucre. His appointment was a natural one and he did not care to cast aside the great honor. But mark the prediction: He will resign in less than six months or by the time the Chattanooga season gets busy, when he will be a greater drawing card than ever.

Rocks That Wrecked The Party.

Whatever niche of fame history will allot to William Howard Taft, it is popular today to call him a failure. The New York World in a brief summary of the good and ill of his administration, says his failure to veto the Payne Aldrich tariff law was the initial error that caused most of his party's troubles. Also his refusal to co-operate with democrats and republicans in Congress to revise the tariff downward, as he had promised, was a blunder.

"Reduced to the fewest terms," says the World, "the fate of the republican party may be attributed to privilege, plutocracy and personal government. These are the rocks on which it went to pieces. Mr. Taft contributed greatly to the result by his inability to perceive that the time had come to cut off monopolistic taxation. Mr. Roosevelt and his associates must accept whatever responsibility attaches to the deliberate wrecking of a party for revengeful and selfish ends."

"Democrats may study this record with profit. They will find much to emulate and not a little to avoid. They also have their stand-patters and plutocrats. They also have their turbulent leaders, eager for power and crazy for violence. The forces that have humiliated the republicans in spite of much good service will unfailingly undo the democrats, if given the upper hand."

EDITOR ALVORSON, of the Anderson News, comes back at us with a broadside that paralyzes us. In fact, we have been helpless since we read his scathing, vitriolic, bombastic effort. It was terrible; it was philippic; it was burning. We stirred up a hornet's nest and as a result we were "stung." Experience is a great though harsh teacher, and we have profited by ours. No more shall we tickle the hind heels of a male nor hold to our cheek a deadly rattler. The burnt child dreads the fire and we are compelled to admit that we were badly scorched. Forgive our egregious error, "Senator," and we promise never again to molest you, but, on the contrary, our "duffence" will be used in getting you more pie. We are sure that nothing would please you better. Adieu and--eat!

We are very glad to learn that Judge Wilkes H. Morgan and County Attorney Frank Ripley, of Anderson, have withdrawn their damage suits against Editor J. M. Alverson, of the Anderson News. The latter published a card showing that he had been misinformed as to the article he published and to which the gentlemen objected, and now the dove of peace hovered over them. All of the gentlemen did the right thing. If Editor Alverson had good reason to believe that what he published was true, he should not be censured for giving it to the public. Finding he was wrong, he did the honorable by admitting his error. When he did this, Judge Morgan and Attorney Ripley showed themselves to be men of the right sort, by withdrawing their suits and accepting his apology.

We are asked by the Anderson News if we are for Gov. McCrory for Senator. Let your boots, Mr. Alverson, we are. The Climax always supports Madison county men, when she offers good ones, and that she always does. We have not asked the governor to run, however, but having that he needs no advice from this paper. And, too, the editor of the Climax would not under any circumstances be a father to the crime of advising any person to either get in or stay in politics. He has seen too many good men ruined by the political game.

The Interior Journal has this to say about the candidacy of Mr. A. D. Miller, the president of the Climax Printing Co., for Representative of Madison county:

"Representative L. B. Herrington has declined to make the race for re-election. Now if the democrats of Madison county will get behind A. D. Miller and elect him by acclamation, they will have a representative who will reflect honor on that good county in every way."

William R. Wilson, Secretary of Labor, who was urged by Samuel Gompers for the Cabinet position to which he has been appointed, states that his policy will be to attempt to bring capital and labor together through conferences to settle labor disputes.

Caldwell High School Girls Victorious.
On Friday night last the girls' basket ball team of Caldwell High School played the Nicholasville High School team Nicholasville, winning by a score of 10 to 9. This was one of the most interesting games of the season, as the score was close from beginning to end. Each player did splendid work, but Misses Martin and Kunkel deserve especial mention. Caldwell's players were: Guards, Misses Martin and Terrill; forwards, Misses Davidson and Kunkel, center, Miss Shearer. This was the last game that Caldwell will play away from home this season, but the team will play the second five of Caldwell Friday night in the High School gymnasium at 7:30 o'clock. Admission ten cents.

Mr. Clay Announces For Representative.
Mr. Green Clay announces in this issue of the Climax his candidacy for Representative of Madison county in the next Legislature, subject to the action of the democratic primary of August next. A graduate of Central University, Ann Arbor, Mich., the Columbia University Law Department, a practitioner at the Richmond bar for a number of years, a man of affairs, a gentleman and a life-long democrat, he is well equipped to fill with credit the office he aspires to. He is a farmer and no doubt knows well the legislation desired by the tillers of the soil. Mr.
Clay is a native of Madison county and a grandson of the late Cassius Marcellus Clay. He will begin at once an active canvass of the county.

Death of Samuel Bennett.
The sad news was received here yesterday of the death at his home in Lexington of Mr. Samuel Bennett, brother of Mr. Walter Bennett and Miss Belle Bennett, of this city. Mr. Bennett lived in Madison county until a few years ago when he removed to Fayette. He was not feeling well yesterday morning and remarked to members of his family that he would not go down town, as usual, but would go to his room and lie down for a short while. He was visited an hour or so later, when it was discovered that he was scarcely breathing. His death occurred a short while later. He had been troubled with his heart for several years and has been told that his end might come at any moment from heart disease. The funeral will take place at his late home at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning, Dean Massie, of the Episcopal church, officiating. The remains will be brought to this city by automobile and should arrive at 1 p. m., when the burial will occur in Richmond Cemetery after brief services at the grave by Dr. G. W. Crumrich. Besides his wife, who was Miss Mary Wardell, three sons and two daughters survive.
Mr. Bennett was a fine gentleman, a substantial, good citizen and his death is a decided shock to his many friends and relatives in this county and elsewhere.

All Enjoyed The Play.
What is pronounced by all who saw it the most delightful play offered in Stanford in many years was presented in the "Shepherd of the Hills" at the opera house Thursday night. That Stanford people appreciate high-class entertainment like this was evinced by the fact that the performance was given to a capacity house, notwithstanding $1 was charged for the best seats. The management of the production was certainly to be congratulated upon being able to secure so high a class entertainment for Stanford. The pretty little story, made famous in the novel of that title, was cleverly and entertainingly presented by a well balanced cast, with special scenery and costumes that made the play a picture of life in the Ozarks—Stanford Interior Journal.

Fearful Wreck—Many Hurt.
A fearful wreck occurred on the L. & N. near White's Station about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and that every person on the heavily-laden train was not killed or maimed is almost a miracle.
It is believed that spreading rails caused a portion of the double-header passenger train No. 38, due here at 1:30, to leave the track and turn turtle. One of the engines turned crosswise on the track, while the other went with the first coaches over in the ditch. The wreck occurred close to a trestle and within a few hundred yards of where a freight wreck occurred several years ago, in which George Devere, of this city, lost his life. The fireman of one of the engines was thrown from his cab into a creek, but, strange as it may seem, he escaped injury. A number of the injured were brought to Patti A.
Clay Infirmary for treatment by Drs. C.
H. Vaught and H. C. Jasper, and while they were all severely hurt, none are thought to be seriously so. Following is a list of those hurt: E. B. Chapman, baggage-master, Knoxville; fractured ribs, back sprained and bruised.
M. Jones, London, an employee of a construction crew; cut over the right eye.
Walter Bell, Lexington, express messenger, badly bruised in right side and left shoulder.
W. T. Williams, Paris, mail clerk; left arm and shoulder badly bruised and right arm sprained.
Samuel B. Pigz, expressman, Knoxville; lacerated over the eye, badly cut in the face and several teeth knocked out.
Webster Schreck, mail clerk, Newport; knee and shoulder bruised.
It took many hours to clear the track and passenger trains were run via Rowland Sunday afternoon and night. The wreck was a costly one to the company.

Clever Presentation of King Rene's Daughter.
Notwithstanding the inclement night, the Opera House was well filled last night with an audience that fully appreciated the histrionic ability shown by the young ladies of Madison Institute in their presentation of "King Rene's Daughter" and the closing little playlet, "Creatures of Impulse." The character of King Rene was presented with great dignity and poise by stately Miss Eva Whitlock, while Count Tristan, by the bright and talented little actress, Miss Mabel Kuyum, who has a clear, sweet stage voice, could not have been done with more ability by an amateur and by few professionals. Sir Geoffrey of Orange was "manfully" portrayed by Miss Coralie Duff, while Nora Griggs, as Sir Almerick was well presented. Ebon Jaha the physician, by Miss Jennie Rankin, brought out that young lady's high talent. Bertrand was most satisfactorily portrayed by Miss Roberta Biggerstaff, and Martha, Bertrand's wife, was very quaint and pleasing. Iolanthe, a most difficult character, the daughter of the King, was well and pathetically given by Miss Jeannette Pates and with much calmness and sweetness. It is rather a difficult task to give to each young lady due credit, for they all played their separate parts so well that they are to be praised and complimented on their superior work. The costumes were elegant and the stage setting very tasteful. The young ladies went through the entire program without a hitch.

Miss Bessie Wagers' monologue on Woman's Rights was a character most difficult to sustain, but Miss Wagers more than did herself credit in her work and was encored most heartily. She has much elocutionary talent.

The Swedish Folk Dances by the physical culture class, composed of about 20 young ladies, costumed in white waists and black skirts, was very pretty and their evolutions showed that they had been well drilled and the different changes perfectly timed to the music of the piano, executed by the talented young musician, Miss Coralie Duff.

The closing comedy, "Creatures of Impulse," was a very bright, laughable little sketch, that caught the audience from the start, and it was kept in good humor from the raising to the going down of the curtain. The same young ladies took part in this play as in "King Rene's Daughter," and some of them did even better in it than in the former which is saying a great deal, for the portrayal of "King Rene" would be very difficult to improve upon. It is to be regretted that the night was so unpropitious for those who missed seeing these talented young ladies in their different characters have much to be regretful for.

Cattle Sell High at Stanford Court.
There were some 1,200 or 1,500 cattle on the market at Stanford court Monday and the high price of 8 cents was paid for a choice bunch of steers. Half-cows sold at 5 1/2 to 7c. Butcher stuff went all the way from 4 to 7c. The demand was strong and most all of the cattle changed hands. Mules sold at $125 to $200 and horses at about the same figures. A dozen Shetland ponies sold at $40 to $100. The inclement weather cut down the usual court day crowd considerably.

asses, 65c per gallon, at D. B. McKinney's.

Called Meeting of Commercial Club.
A special meeting of the Commercial Club will be held Friday night at the City Hall. Business of interest to every citizen will be up for consideration and every member of the club is urged to be present.

Sewell & McKinney.
Your special attention is called to the advertisement in this issue of the two-day-Friday and Saturday—March 14 and 15—special sale of Sewell & Mc-Kinney. These gentlemen do just what they promise and it will be money in your pocket to go and see them. Make a note of this and don't forget the date.

Prohibiting Marriage.
The Bankers' Trust Company, of New York, seems to be inviting a decision by the court that its action with reference to the marriage of its clerks is against public policy. Its directors have just adopted a rule that a clerk receiving less than $100 a month will be dismissed and forfeit the right to share in the company's pension if he takes for himself a wife. The directors claim that this was not to protect themselves, but to safeguard the employees against the disaster likely to follow an attempt to support a family on an insufficient salary. The clerks will doubtless regard it, however, as indefensible meddling in their private affairs of which they will themselves be the better judges. That there are many young people who give little thought when they marry to supporting a family, is evident, but as the matter has not been attempted to be regulated by law it is doubtful if trust companies can succeed in doing so. Love defies parents and locksmits, and it will likely defy those guardians of matters which seem not to concern them. They may lose clerks, but they won't materially decrease the marriage rate.—W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald.

in at the door was $50. Miss Daniels giving the Kirkville school this entertainment in a few days.

Miss Daniels has been requested to ed school. Prof. Waterbury purchased a piano in Louisville at a reduced price and these entertainments are given to pay for it. We want a library next.

We hope to have some good speakers

Smothered to Death.
Mr. Ed Cornelson lost 104 nice young spring chickens, well along in size, in a peculiar manner, a few days ago. He had them in his cellar, a warm, rat-proof place. Wishing to give them more light, he took a kerosene lamp down, as he remarked when asked why he did so, that the chickens might have a light to eat by. Returning to the cellar some time later, he found his nice brood of chickens asphyxiated by the fumes from the lamp, a truly distressing matter to contemplate when we think of the fact that only millions can indulge in the earliest crops.
